

Scotland Malawi Partnership (SMP)
Further and Higher Education (FEHE) Forum
September 2017

Meeting Details

Timings Wednesday 20th September, 13:30-16:00

Venue Business Centre, Edinburgh City Chambers, High Street, Edinburgh EH1 1YJ

Outline Agenda

13:30-13:35 Welcome and Introductions

- Simon Guild, Forum Chair, University of Glasgow

13:35-13:55 Section 1: Funding updates:

- Update on Commonwealth Scholarships: John Kirkland, ACU
- Update on DFID SPHEIR consortium bid: Simon Guild, University of Glasgow, and Jane Andrews, University of Strathclyde
- Scottish Government's up-coming Malawi call: David Hope-Jones

13:55-15:15 Section 2: F & HE member updates: Successes, Challenges, Opportunities

Susan Flynn and Akuzike Kamwanja, Chifundo UK and Chanasa Malawi	Malawi Tuition Fees and funding for female university scholarships at public-funded universities in Malawi
Damien Frame, University of Strathclyde	Off-Grid Renewable Electricity and Community Energy in Malawi
Molly Gilmour and Mia Perry, University of Glasgow	The Sustainable Futures in Africa Network MALBOP: Malawi – Biology of Parasitology
Carol Clement, University of Strathclyde	IMMPAQKT: Impact on Malaria, Maternal health and the Prognosis for Aids by Quality Assurance
Julie Struthers, University of St. Andrews	Enhancing Medical & Healthcare Training; Strengthening IT Capacity
Alistair Tough, University of Glasgow	Health information management and medical record keeping systems in Malawi – a preliminary investigation
Karl Magee, University of Stirling	The Peter Mackay Archive Project

15:15-15:40 Section 3: Opportunities for Collaboration: open discussion and planning

- Facilitators: Simon Guild and David Hope-Jones

15:40-16:00 Networking